Multicultural Festival

The 5th Annual Multicultural Festival will be rich with cultural exhibits, food, and entertainment on October 22, 2011 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Maude Cobb Activity Center, 100 Grand Blvd. The Race Relations Committee sponsors this event and continues to develop opportunities for awareness and education of cutltural affairs in the Longview area.

Approximately 2,000 patrons attended the 2010 event, along with sponsors, elected officials, performers, volunteers, merchants, and exhibitors. All experienced the wonderful diversity and community spirit the Festival had to offer. People were treated to a taste of the world and a number of acts involved in the one-day extravaganza showcasing talents.

This year's event will again feature old favorites such as the Down Home Cloggers and food by Nall's Catering, the Serendipity Group and the much-loved Hall Brothers.

The application process is now open to the publc. Limited booth space is available. Reserve booth space early and receive the benefit of prime festival placement.

For more information about the 2011 Multicultural Festival contact Partners in Prevention a 903-237-1019.

Booth Application Form 1

Sponsor Form [2] (.pdf)

Benefits of Sponsorship 3

Source URL: http://pip.longviewtexas.gov/multicultural-festival

Links:
[1] http://pip.longviewtexas.gov/sites/default/files/files/2011 Booth Application.pdf
[2] http://pip.longviewtexas.gov/sites/default/files/files/MCF 2011_Sponsor_Form General(1).pdf
[3] http://pip.longviewtexas.gov/sites/default/files/files/Benefit Privileges English 2011(1).pdf